Soul At Work

Dr. Margaret Benefiel will speak at the Wayland Library on Saturday, January 14, at 3 p.m. on how a business or organization can create a caring, values-based atmosphere without negatively affecting its bottom line.

Since the fall of Enron and WorldCom, corporate scandals among so-called leaders have taken their toll on the conscience of the business world. Today, many people want more than just accountability; they want to work and do business with companies that really have strong ethical values. Dr. Benefiel, a Quaker minister, is CEO of ExecutiveSoul.com and teaches at Andover Newton Theological School in Boston. This program is sponsored by the Gossels Fund for Human Dignity.

Great Decisions Program

Are you interested in world politics? Do you enjoy discussing current events with a group of people? Participate in the 2006 Great Decisions Program, which will include 9 sessions between January and June. Topics will include UN Reform, the U.S. and Iran, Energy, Brazil, Human Rights in an Age of Terrorism, China and India: Partners or Competitors, Turkey, and Pandemics and Security. The first session of Great Decisions will meet on Friday, January 27, from 9:15 to 11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. The topic will be UN Reform. Both its supporters and critics recognize the United Nations as an organization in need of critical changes. Disagreements about intervention in Iraq, the oil-for-food-scandal and management issues have fueled the debate about the UN's ability to take on global challenges. What reforms are needed to make the UN more effective? This program includes a book that should be ordered in advance. For further information, please ask for Sally Lamprey at 508-358-2311.

Adolescent Psychology: The Parent Version

On Tuesday, February 7 at 7:00 p.m., Joani Geltman, LICSW, will speak on the physical, cognitive, social and emotional changes that occur in adolescence, and how these changes affect relationships with parents, friends and school. Learn ways to teen-proof your home as well as your relationship and how to set appropriate limits so your teen will want to follow them. Geltman is an expert in child development and has worked as a therapist and parenting coach for over 25 years.

PHOTO IMPRESSIONS

George Brawerman, a local photographer, will be exhibiting his recent work in the Raytheon Room during January. In addition to conventional scenes, his work deals with semi-impressionistic nature images where shape and color take precedence over subject matter. A number of the pictures were inspired by the keen eye of his wife, Ruth, and one of her pictures is included in the exhibit. All the photographs in the exhibit are digital images, which are processed to provide the desired mood and color balance. Brawerman's purpose is not to alter the image, but to recreate the impressions experienced by the photographer when first exposed to the scene. His primary interest lies in nature photography, but he also has become interested in urban images. A reception will be held on Sunday, January 8, from 2:30-4:30 p.m.

Attention Local History Buffs!

We are currently making all our local historical materials accessible in Minuteman's online catalog. A number of these materials have never been catalogued, such as Why Women Do Not Want the Ballot (late 1800's), Sermons Preached In and About Wayland (1772-1876), Minutes of Meeting of Temperance Society of East Sudbury (1833), and Revolutionary War Soldiers Buried in the North Cemetery. We are working with Megan Brady at Minuteman Library Network to properly catalog these materials in accordance with standard cataloging rules. Our local history materials are located in the Cage on the balcony and are generally for in library use only. Ask a reference librarian if you would like to see any of the materials from the Cage.

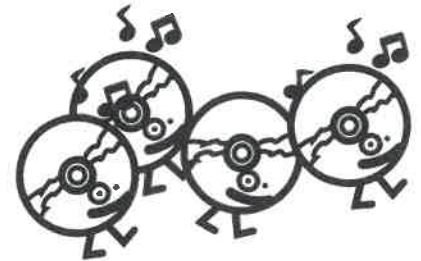

Long-Range Planning Committee

The next meeting of the Long-Range Planning Committee will be on January 9. At the first meeting the committee members got to know one another and discussed a vision for our community. At the January meeting the topic will be how library services can support our community vision.

Trustee Meeting

There will be a trustee meeting on Wednesday, January 11 at 9:00 a.m. in the Raytheon Room.

Medieval Epic Poetry with Frank Smith

A sign-up sheet will be available at the main circulation desk after February 8 for Frank Smith's Medieval Epic Poetry program, which will be held at 1 p.m. in the library on the following Tuesdays: March 7, 14, 21, 28, and April 4. Texts discussed will be The Song of Roland, El Cid, The Death of Arthur, and Tristan and Isolde. This program is supported in part by a grant from the Wayland Cultural Council, a local agency supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency. Additional funding is provided by the Friends of the Wayland Library.

Library Trustee Election

The Wayland Library is governed by an elected Board of Library Trustees. This board is made up of six members who are elected for staggered three-year terms of office. Each year voters have an opportunity to elect two trustees. This year, as always, two trustees must be voted into office. Trustee Jack Wilson, who has been on the Board for over 20 years, has decided not to run for re-election this year. Nomination papers are available at the Town Clerk's office and must be submitted to the clerk by 5 p.m. on March 7.

Exhibits

Roy Hughes Photography

Photographs by Roy Hughes will be on exhibit in the library foyer during February. A graphic designer for thirty-eight years, Mr. Hughes has served as art director and design director for such companies as General Electric, Polaroid, and The Hughes Communications Group. He has been accorded many prestigious design recognitions during his

Rosa Parks Display

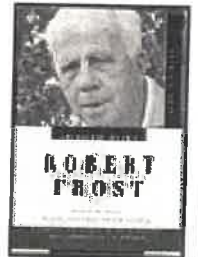

To celebrate Black History month in February, the Wayland Diversity Network will create a display for our lower level exhibit case about the late Rosa Parks, a hero of the civil rights movement.

Paintings by Frank Antonell

During February Wayland resident Frank Antonell will exhibit his paintings in the Raytheon Room. His work includes landscapes, portraits, and a variety of other subjects. Although he completed his first oil painting at the age of 12, his busy career as an architect prevented him from devoting as much time to painting as he has during the last five years of his retirement. Within those five years he has produced over 100 oil and acrylic paintings. He has also created a variety of light-houses burned into driftwood. Frank Antonell will host a reception in the Raytheon Room on February 5 from 2:30-4:30.

Voice of the Poet Series On CD

Listen to your favorite poets reading their own work! We have recently purchased a series that includes works by Elizabeth Bishop, T.S. Eliot, Robert Frost, Langston Hughes, Sylvia Plath, Adrienne Rich, Anne Sexton, Richard Wilbur, and William Carlos Williams. Each volume includes one CD and an accompanying book of poems by the author. Look for these and other audio CDs on the bookshelf behind the staircase on the main floor.

Trustee Meeting

There will be a trustee meeting on Wednesday, February 15 at 9:00 a.m. in the Raytheon Room.

Our Sudbury River With Ron McAdow

On February 26 at 2:15 p.m. in the Raytheon Room, Sudbury Valley Trustees' Executive Director, Ron McAdow, will take us on a photographic journey from the Sudbury 's source in Cedar Swamp with special mention of the river's role in Wayland history. Ron's presentation includes pictures of wildlife and landscapes plus commentary about the river's natural features and literary associations.

Wayland Public Library

Grabill Photographs

John Grabill, a Wayland resident, has been taking photographs of the flora, fauna, water, and sky around his house next to the Sudbury River for over 20 years, with the idea of capturing images that can be seen everyday by the naked eye: no filters, no digital manipulation, no zooms. A collection of his colorful images, from towering trees to reflections in puddles, can be seen in the Raytheon Room during the month of March. The show is entitled "Visions In Wayland" and includes a selection of black and white photos taken by John's daughter Aurora. There will be a public reception on Sunday, March 5, from 2:30-4:30 p.m. More pictures and information can be found at John's website, www.newenglandphotosplus.com

Returning Materials

The Minuteman Library Network willingly accepts any library's materials at any member library. However, as our volume of interlibrary loan increases, transporting these materials is costing us more and more time and money. Therefore, we are asking for your help with the transportation of library materials. We will still accept materials from other libraries; however, we would appreciate your returning materials to the library where you checked them out when it is convenient for you.

Joanne Franklin Exhibit

Wayland resident Joanne Tarlin Franklin will mount an exhibit of her work in the foyer in March.

Delivery for Shut-Ins

Our staff is happy to arrange for library materials to be delivered to the homes of citizens who are unable to get to the library due to infirmity. To request this service, please call the Circulation Department at 508-358-2311.

Great Decisions

The Great Decisions Program will continue its series of discussions about political issues. On March 3, 2006 the topic will be The Energy Policy Conundrum. The U.S. is more than ever dependent on foreign energy supplies, which are coming at much higher prices. Should the emphasis of U.S. policy be on finding new supplies, securing current sources or reducing its dependence on fossil fuels -- or are all three elements indispensable? On March 24 the topic will be India and China: competition and coordination. The interplay between China, India and the U.S. is complex and shifting, characterized by competition, cooperation and differing perceptions of 'containment.' All discussions take place at 9:15 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. For further questions, please call Dee West at 508-358-4089.

Wayland Public Library

Girl Scout Display

The March display case features memorabilia about Juliette Gordon Low, the Founder of Girl Scouting in the United States. Daisy, as she was fondly called, was born on October 31, 1860 to a prominent southern family on the eve of the Civil War. Daisy was introduced to Scouting in England where she met the founder of Boy Scouting, Lord Baden-Powell. Daisy brought the movement for girls here and held the first Girl Scout meeting in Savannah, GA on March 12, 1912 with a troop of 18 girls. March 12 is now celebrated annually as Girl Scout Birthday, and Girl Scouting is celebrating its 94th birthday this year. The display features photographs and items related to Daisy's life from the Girl Scout Museum at Cedar Hill and from the collection of Aida Gennis.

Spring Shakespeare Festival

Our annual Shakespeare series with Professor Helen Whall is fast approaching. The dates scheduled are all Tuesday evenings: April 18, May 2, and May 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Raytheon Room. This year's theme is "Shakespeare's Religion(s)." In the first lecture Professor Whall plans to outline Shakespeare's responses to religious controversy and discuss the contradictory role religion plays in many of his plays. In this initial lecture she will place familiar plays such as A Midsummer Night's Dream, Hamlet, and The Tempest in the context of religion. In the next two lectures, Whall will examine an early play (The Comedy of Errors) and then a late play (King Lear), which respond quite differently to the topic of religion. This series is supported by the Friends of the Wayland Library.

Eyes on the Prize with John Michalczyk

The amazing accomplishments of father-son athletic competitors and Boston Marathon fixtures Dick and Rick Hoyt are depicted in a new documentary by BC filmmaker
 John Michalczyk, which will be shown in the library's Raytheon
 Room at 7 p.m. on Wednesday,
 April 5. "*Rick's Eyes on the Prize:
 Running with Team Hoyt*, written by the Hoyts and Michalczyk, tells a personal story of how father and son faced Rick's cerebral palsy di-agnosis and why they chose to take on the challenges of marathons and triathlons. "Team Hoyt" has participated in more than 900 athletic competitions. Along the way they have broken many barriers. The library is delighted to be able to bring this film to a local audience during the 2006 marathon season.

Photography Exhibit by Steve and Kim Robb

For the month of April, Steve and Kim
 Robb will display portraits in the Foyer. The Robbs have created a personal business that focuses on families and children, and not just with a camera lens. The Robbs are very committed to the Wayland area and take pride in being active members of their community.
 They have, through their portraiture, initiated many fund raising efforts for a variety of organizations. To see more samples of their

New Library Hours

In order to get to the $2.1M override amount several town departments, including the library, had their budgets reduced. This reduction affected library budget lines for salaries and books. Due to these cuts, starting on July 3 the library will be opening at 10 a.m. instead of 9 a.m. on weekday mornings. We are grateful for the passage of the override enabling us to retain all our evening hours. We thank Wayland's citizens for supporting the library and other town services. This summer, as usual, we will be open on Saturdays from 10-1 and closed on Sundays. Weekend summer hours start on Saturday, July 1.

ESOL Tutoring

Are you interested in tutoring someone in speaking English as a second language? There is always a waiting list of people eager to be tutored. We are running a four part evening training class for tutors on May 11, May 25, June 1, June 8, and June 13(raindate). All classes are from 6-9 p.m. in the Raytheon Room. For more information, contact Sema Faigen at 508-653-6098.

SPECIAL SHOWING OF WPL LIBRARIAN'S PLAY ON DVD

On Sunday, June 4 at 2:30 in the Raytheon Room, the Library will show a DVD of Sons of the Bedtime Nooz, a play by Reference Librarian Andy Moore and his brother Peter.

Commissioned by the Great American History Theatre in St. Paul, MN, Sons of the Bedtime Nooz is the brothers' memoir of their late father, longtime Minnesota anchorman Dave Moore, with an emphasis on his late-night comic news show. As they explore their relationship with Dave through stories and film clips, Peter and Andy reveal how differently two brothers can remember a father.

The video runs just over two hours. Andy Moore will introduce it and will be available for questions afterwards.

Great Decisions

The 2006 Great Decisions program will continue on May 5 from 9:15 to 11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. The topic will be Pandemics and Security. Post 9/11, security and public health authorities are planning for epidemiological disasters as never before. What does that planning encompass, and how effective is it likely to be? What lessons can be learned from reactions to the global AIDS pandemic and its growing impact on the developing world?

As they explore their relationship with Dave through stories and film clips, Peter and Andy reveal how differently two brothers can remember a father.

The video runs just over two hours. Andy Moore will introduce it and will be available for questions afterwards.

Downloadable Audiobooks

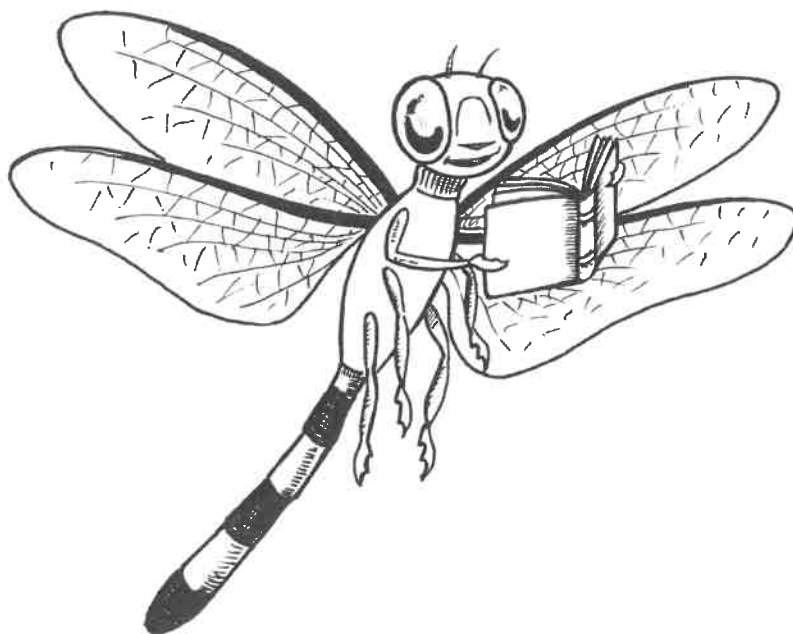

Thanks to the generosity of the Friends of the Library, Wayland library patrons will be able to start downloading electronic audiobooks from NetLibrary/Recorded Books in early June. Users will not access this service in the library but will download audiobooks at home to their own computers. The books are also transferable to many portable mp3 players. This program allows us to expand our offerings without having to physically house the media on our already-crowded shelves. Look for more information about this new service on our website in June at www.wayland.ma.us/library/.

2006 Summer Reading Program June 19 to September 1

What's the Buzz at the Wayland Public Library?

We're creating a buzz here at the library. This summer is all about nature including our creepy, crawly friends of the insect world! Join us for special events, summer reading prizes, and fun contests! This summer our charity goal is to adopt acres of Brazilian rainforest through the Nature Conservatory. Protecting the rainforest protects many of our plant and animal friends including millions of insects that make their home on the rainforest floor.

Program Scholar and Moderator:

Anna P. Ronell, Ph.D., Wellesley College

Last year's program was so successful that we're doing it again. Once more, the theme is the collision of cultures and the end of eras, with a whole new series of books selected by our erudite and entertaining moderator. Good reading, lively discussion, and cookies—sign up now!

Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. – free and open to all

September 26	Badenheim 1939	(Aharon Appelfeld)
October 10	Farewell, Babylon	(Naim Kattan)
October 25 (Wed.)	See Under: Love	(David Grossman)
November 7	Leaving Leningrad	(Liudmila Shtern)
November 21	Mazel	(Rebecca Goldstein)

Books will be provided through the Minuteman Library Network on a first-come, first-served basis. HOWEVER: the network has relatively few copies of some of these titles, and participants may have to buy their own. The Library reference staff will be happy to assist anyone in purchasing a copy online.

Library Hours

Because of reductions the town made in our budget for this year, we now open weekdays at 10 a.m. instead of 9 a.m. Some of our users were under the mistaken impression that the new opening hours would last only through the summer. Unfortunately, this reduction obtains for the entire fiscal year.

Downloadable Audiobooks

Thanks to the Friends of the Wayland Library, a huge library of downloadable audiobooks is now available through our website (www.wayland.ma.us/library). You will need a PC that runs Windows 2000 or XP and Windows Media Player 9 or 10. If you have a library card, you can set up a free account with NetLibrary from our website. Then follow the directions, click, and download from our collection—including Pimsleur language learning programs for almost any world language you can imagine (including English).

Parmenter Community Health Display

Have you thought about getting your blood pressure checked, but never seem to get around to it? Do you wish there was a class for your youngster to learn how to be home alone and safe while you run errands? Do you need help with an aging spouse or parent just a little so they can stay at home as long as possible? Parmenter Community Health can help you meet each of these needs and more. The Lower Level Display Case will feature the variety of services available to our community through Parmenter Community Health / Wayside Hospice.

Fall Art Series with Judy Schurgin

In late October, Judy Schurgin will begin a series of art lectures focusing on four artists of fantasy: Gauguin, Chagall, Dali and Frida Kahlo. The programs are scheduled on four Thursdays: October 19, October 26, November 9 and November 16 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the Raytheon Room.

Nature Reflections At Wayland Library

Twenty-one members from the Sudbury Valley Nature Photographers (SVNP) will stage a group exhibit in the Raytheon Room for the months of September and October. The public is invited to meet the photographers at a reception on Sunday, September 10 from 2:30-4:30 p.m.

Learning on the Go

Want to keep learning without going back to school? Check out our Teaching Company and Modern Scholars selections available on spoken CD. We've added quite a few titles recently due to popular demand.

Ellen Craft: Self-Emancipated Woman Performed by Marcia Estabrook A Gossels Fund Program

This year's program funded by the Gossels Fund for Human Dignity will be a presentation of Ellen Craft: Self-Emancipated Woman on Friday evening, October 27, at 7 p.m. Marcia Estabrook, a highly regarded local character actor, will re-enact the story of Ellen Craft, a light-skinned Georgia slave who in December of 1848, dressed herself as a man and boarded a train bound for Savannah with her husband, William, posing as her slave. Four danger-filled days later, they set foot on free soil in Philadelphia, but this was only the beginning of their run for freedom. The couple's innovative use of disguise, their poise despite intense scrutiny, and their determination to gain their freedom made them heroes to many and villains to others. After surviving dogged pursuits by slave-catchers, the Crafts found refuge in Boston's African American Beacon Hill community, became ardent abolitionists, joined vigilance committees, and traveled abroad to raise awareness about the plight of enslaved African Americans.

WANTED--Volunteers of Good Will for ESOL Program

The Wayland Library has sponsored an ESOL Program for 17 years that has trained well over two hundred tutors. We have a never-ending waiting list of learners who need help, but a lack of corresponding volunteers willing to tutor these students for a couple of hours a week. Training classes for new tutors have been scheduled at the library for Mondays (6-9 p.m.), beginning on October 23 and continuing on November 6, 13, 20 and 27, with a snow date on December 4. No teaching experience or foreign language ability is required in order to be a tutor. We will train you, painlessly, even enjoyably, to offer this service to someone who really needs help. You will work one-on-one with adults who desire to improve their abilities in spoken and written English. For more information, please call 508-653-6098.

Artists of Fantasy Series with Judy Schurgin

On November 9 at 1 p.m., the subject of Judy Schurgin's third Artists of Fantasy lecture will be Salvador Dali. This Spanish Surrealist artist remains one of the most enigmatic and controversial artists of the twentieth century. His paintings are characterized by virtuoso technique, minute detail, optical illusions, hallucinations, fractured reality and Freudian dream symbolism. Today, many remain among the most recognizable works in the history of art. Judy's last program on November 16 at 1 p.m. will be on Frida Kahlo. Kahlo created many imaginative self-portraits which expressed her physical and emotional pain. Her flamboyant, surreal images are personal reflections of the highs and lows of her short, tragic life. Join Judy as she once again shares her enthusiasm for art history through slides and lively discussion.

Daytime ESOL Tutor Training

We were gratified by the response to our recent call for volunteers for the library's ESOL Program. We are currently training a group of tutors on Monday evenings, and we plan to start a daytime training class in November. The class is scheduled to meet on the following dates: November 8, 13, 15, 20, and 27 from 10:15-1:15 in the library's Raytheon Room. For more information or to register, please call 508-653-6098.

End of Year Giving

Thank you to all those who continue to support the Wayland Public Library Endowment Fund. If you are planning any end of year giving, think about contributing to the Endowment Fund!

Book Group

The next meeting of the Wayland Public Library book group will be on Friday, November 17, at 12 noon and the discussion book will be of Waiting for Snow in Havana: Confessions of a Cuban Boy by Carlos Eire. In 1962, the author was one of 14,000 children airlifted out of Cuba. This haunting memoir of the Cuban Revolution, seen through the eyes of a small boy, is the heartbreaking story of the author's privileged childhood in pre-Revolution Havana and how he lost everything, including his father. For more information on the book group, contact Assistant Director Kathy Powers at 508-358-2311.

Remembering Our Veterans

In honor of Veterans' Day, during November our lower level display case is devoted to an exhibit that honors our town's veterans. John Turchinetz, Wayland's Veterans' Agent, has organized a display that includes photographs of local military memorials, information about women in military service, and pictures of current military campaigns.

CD by Allen Barker

Local pianist, Allen Barker, recently donated a copy of his latest CD to the Wayland Library's collection. It is a recital called Joy, Charm & Wit and features Erik Satie's amusing and rarely heard Sports et Divertissements with the performer narrating the composer's words. Mr. Barker performed this recital at Assumption College in Worcester last spring and in October on tour in Florida. The recital includes works by Mendelssohn, Bach, Beethoven, Schubert, Poulenc and Debussy. Allen Barker teaches piano at his home in Wayland where he and his wife have their respective piano and ballet studios. The CD is available at the Wayland Depot and Sudbury Music.

Foyer Exhibit

The library foyer will contain an exhibit of artwork created by home-schooled students from the Metrowest area. Home schooled students from Framingham, Lincoln, Sudbury, Wayland, Natick and surrounding areas come together for learning and social experiences. The exhibit is arranged by Rebecca Chizzo.

Poet Adele Margolis

Members of the Poetry Workshop invite the public to join them in the Raytheon Room on December 8 at 2:30 p.m. to celebrate the life and poetry of Adele Margolis. Margolis has recently had two books published. Some poets seem to start writing poetry while in the cradle. Others, such as Adele, discover their muses later in life. Adele's first career was as a schoolteacher. During World War II she began her second career in clothing design, which she taught in adult schools, master classes, and art school. She wrote dozens of successful books on this subject, one of which was recently reissued by Dover publications.

Adele's third career began when she enrolled in literature and creative writing classes in Philadelphia. At the age of 80 she embarked on her third career and a new life as a poet. She moved to Weston in the 1990s and joined the Wayland Public Library

Poetry Workshop. She recently published a book of poems titled Sometimes I Forget That I Am Old. Her poetry is characterized by humor, nostalgia and poignancy

The Poetry Workshop will also meet on December 13 from 2:00—4:00 p.m. in the Raytheon Room.
